Online Safety Newsletter
May 2022 - Reporting

Free support for online safety
To access all the online safety resources please sign up (using the link below) or download the free National Online Safety app.
https://nationalonlinesafety.com/enrol/two-rivers-high-school

Know how to report online safety concerns

Revenge Porn Helpline - 0345 6000 459 | Revenge Porn Helpline Revenge Porn Help line UK service supports those who are experiencing intimate image abuse, also known as, revenge porn.

Report to CEOP CEOP is a law enforcement agency and is here to keep children and young people safe from sexual exploitation and abuse.

Report online child sexual abuse images & videos | IWF Report any online child sexual abuse images and videos

Stop Homophobic, Transphobic, Racial, Religious & Disability Hate Crime - True Vision (report-it.org.uk) report any hate crime.

How to report things | Instagram Help Centre Instagram reporting procedures

How to report things | Facebook Help Centre Facebook reporting procedures

Report a Safety Concern - Snap Inc. Snapchat reporting procedures

Reporting - YouTube Help (google.com) YouTube reporting procedures

Submit a Report of Harmful Content (reportharmfulcontent.com) report any hateful crime on any site or platform

Visit our website for more information.
Show our young people how to access this information on our website
Visit https://www.tworiversschool.net/highschool
click 'the school day,' then click 'pupil zone'
Pupil Zone - Two Rivers Federation (tworiversschool.net)